

Directions to La Graule From Bordeaux

Follow the exit signs from the airport.

Take the second exit signposted Rocade (means ring road) / Bordeaux / Merignac

Take the 2nd exit again signposted Bayonne / Toulouse / Pessac. Don't get confused by the Pessac sign as it is a different one.

Stay on the Rocade until junction 24 – it looks quite confusing on the map but you are heading for Libourne.

Junction 24 is signposted Bergerac and D936.

Head down the D936 towards Bergerac for approximately 30- 40 mins.

Go through Branne and over the Dordogne.

At junction, signposted St Pey D'Armens, turn right still on the D936.

Soon the signs say St Foy La Grande.

Turn right onto the D11, signposted Pessac and Gensac.

Go through Les Granges, over the bridge into Pessac then turn left straight after the bridge with a 3.5 ton limit. This is a tiny road. Turn left onto the D130 signposted Eynesse.

Keep left still signposted Eynesse.

Go through Ribebon and keep on the single track road (you'll pass a chateau on your left and you'll see the river again on your left. You are about 1km away now)

At the fork in the road turn right and then immediately right again into La Graule